From the President

Jean and I wish everyone a happy and healthy springtime. The Éire Philatelic Association is celebrating 75 years young during 2025 and we will be having a very big birthday party at the Saint Louis Stamp Expo during March 21 to 23.

We have over 50 frames of ÉPA exhibits being shown at St. Louis Stamp Expo. Many Thanks to Brian Callan who is travelling from Cork with over 25 frames of Exhibits for the ÉPA. Brian won the Grand Award on March 1 at STAMPEX in London for his 8 frame exhibit British and Irish Telegraph Stamps and Forms. Brian's exhibit will be shown at St. Louis along with his Cork Postal History 1696 to 1875.

This is one of the largest assemblies of exhibits from Ireland for many years. Several ÉPA members from North America will be coming to the show and we will have our own ÉPA dinner on Friday night. Our Annual General Meeting will be on Saturday March 22, with presentations on Irish Philately on both Friday and Saturday.

We will have a second Celebration at STAMPA 2025 from October 10 to 12 in Dublin. The Summer Revealer will have a full report on our AGM and more news about STAMPA 2025.

Included in the Spring Revealer is the second of two Souvenir cards for our 75th Celebrations. This second card was generously prepared and donated by An Post. We are most grateful to Aileen Mooney, Anne O'Neill and Dave Mulholland --- for supplying the card with an imprint of the Ireland / USA relationship stamp which makes the card post free from Ireland to anywhere in the world.

Members receiving digital only Revealers should have received their cards through the mail – provided that we have your current address. If you have not received your souvenir cards, please contact me at eparmb@gmail.com.

I would like to thank Steven for our Revealers and it is becoming a challenge to fill the pages without support from ÉPA members sending in articles. The articles can be as simple as a scan of an interesting cover / stamp / document and a brief paragraph about what makes it exciting to you. Two or three examples from members can fill 2 or more pages.

Now for House Keeping: Topics that will be discussed at our AGM in St Louis:

We are at a point where postage and printing costs will be having a negative impact on the ÉPA finances. Michael O'Reilly with the ÉPA auction, manages to slow the financial strain on the Association, but inflation has hit us hard. The ÉPA Board of Directors discussed two options at our meeting in September:

- (a) Raise our annual dues by +$5 to +$10 for 2026;
- (b) Cut the number of issues of the Revealer to three per year similar the Irish Philately and Die Harfe journals. Three issues of The Revealer would allow Steven more time to receive articles and possibly expand the Revealer to 28 pages or more. The change would come in 2026.

We thank all our members who have paid their 2025 dues and a special souvenir card was mailed to members from STAMPA who made an extra contribution to the ÉPA. Members who did not pay by December 1 were switched to digital only for Winter Revealer and were dropped from membership if not Paid by March 1 2025. See You at STAMPA in Dublin October 10 to 12.

Treasurer's Report for September 1 2024 to February 27 2025

The ÉPA fiscal year runs from September 1 to August 31 and this is a Half Year look at our Income and Expenses.

We continue to be in good financial shape for the first half of our fiscal year. With a gross income of $6440 from September to February

We received the following income Total of $12,473

- (a) $5275 from Dues. However, we do not expect any additional monies from dues until late August. We lose approx. 18 members a year in resignations and non-payment of dues.

- (b) $2341 from two auctions (payment from September and December 2024). We anticipate 2 more payments for Winter and Spring. A Very Well Done to Michael O'Reilly, our auction manager. Members: please keep on Bidding.
- (c) $4550 in members donations including $3400 from total from 2 members who earmarked the funds to help Pay our ÉPA 75th Anniversary expenses (particularly the cost of the souvenir cards). The remaining $1100 came from donations sent with dues payments.
- (d) The remaining income came from advertising in the Revealer

We had the following expenses of $6033

- (a) $4000 for the Revealer and mailing of 2 issues of the Revealer. The average cost of $2000 is anticipated to increase by 10% this year. Hence, we expect another $4200 to $4400 in total expenses for the Revealer through August.
- (b) $480 for normal Secretary expenses.
- (c) $700 for an Ad in The February American Philatelist advertising our AQM in St Louis and $850 in printing of the 75th Anniversary souvenir cards. These expenses are offset by the $3400 donations.

We anticipate a surplus of $ 1000 this year depending on Auction Royalties for the next 2 auctions. Note our income is Bolstered by the $3400 donation for our 75th Celebration. Full details can be seen in the Treasurer's Report Sheet which accompanies this report.

Good luck and best wishes for the rest of 2025

Ireland First Day Cover Project – Update

Liam Malone

This is an update on the first day cover project we announced in 2023. During 2024 we amassed over 2,000 images of your covers and other sources. We thank those who submitted images. You may still submit quality scans of your less common first day covers. We particularly would like to receive any overprint covers and covers from the earlier years. We are now laying out pages and writing descriptions along with technical information about each issue. We anticipate four sections: overprints, definitives, airmails, and commemoratives. We also plan to present information about cachet producers and illustrators. For some no information seems to exist. For others we think you will find our information useful and interesting. We are learning so much, it is actually exciting. We will update you again as we get nearer to our final product. Some of you have already expressed interest and if you think you would be interested in purchasing a hard copy book please let us know. We anticipate publishing the book around March 2026.

Post Card from the 1907 Irish International Exhibition

Bill O'Connor

It is interesting to come across mail from the 1907 Irish International Exhibition, Dublin. This post card sent to America with the Exhibition post mark required additional postage; the post card rate to America was 1 penny not the internal rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ pence as shown in the Edward VII green stamp on the card. The 2-cent postage due seems to be the correct rate for the deficiency indicated. This is the only postage due card that I have from the exhibition.

The card itself indicates St. Stephen's Green North Dublin. To the right of the street a small portion of Green Park is indicated. The historic Shelbourne Hotel, which was built in 1867, is located I believe further down the street.

Thoughts on Collecting & Exhibiting Irish Political Labels & Postcards

Robert Benninghoff

This article was inspired by an Éire Philatelic Association colleague who asked my thoughts on Irish Political Labels. I have used early Twentieth Century labels in several of my one frame exhibits (Figure 1) and I have given some thought to developing an exhibit using Political Labels as the central theme. The only exhibits that I have seen that focused on Irish Political Labels were a one frame by Barney Clancy, Irish Political Labels (16 pages), and a five frame by Joe Foley (60 pages), Ireland and Her Troubles: Political Labels from the 19th Century to Modern Times (Figure 2). I also saw Peter Wood's five frame at London 2022, The Road to Independence - Ireland from the Act of Union to Irish Free State. Peter used Political Labels throughout his exhibit.

[I would love to hear from other EPA members who have exhibited or seen other exhibits using Irish Political Labels and Postcards. I would be very grateful for a scan of your exhibit Title page (1st page).]

The Challenge for any exhibit is to develop a story with a clear title and purpose (storyline) with a logical conclusion that does not leave the viewer (and Judges) looking for the next section or Chapter. The exhibit must also have a convincing time range which typically is incorporated into the title (Figure 1). The use of political labels and postcards in an exhibit is acceptable in North America, European and International competitions. However, it might be helpful to clearly define the theme in the exhibit Scope.

An example:

Exhibit uses Political Labels (and Postcards) to document Civil unrest in Ireland from 1900 to 1922.

One difficulty in exhibiting political labels in European and International shows, is finding the right category in which to enter the exhibit. I find that Social Philately is one useful category, when offered. Typically, political labels would be entered into Thematic or Open classes, which have very strict rules on what material can be used. The challenge is not as big in North America where exhibitors are judged more on their Title, Purpose and Scope rather than on which FIP (International) category into which the material falls.

There are several good books and journals that are available for research into the origin and history of Irish Political Labels and Postcards. The front covers are shown on the following page.

- Irish Politics in Postcards, by Declan Martin, published in 1916 by Ulster Historical Foundation (Figure 3), 188 pages. This book is reviewed by Brian Callan on page 11. I got several copies from the Celtic Book Shop in Limerick, Contact IPC member Pat O'Brien at celticbookshop.limerick@gmail.com.
- The Political and Propaganda Labels Related to Ireland and Her History, by Hans-Jurgen Kumph. 167 pages (Fig. 4). This Book was Published in 2021 by the FAI. For membership details and how to purchase the book contact FAI Secretary Wolfgang Fiedler at w.w.fiedler@web.de. This booklet is a comprehensive study of the Irish Labels and is divided into three parts: 1865 to 1922; 1922 to 1966 and the modern labels 1967 to 2016. The book has over 27 pages of appendices and references. The FAI has published over 30 journals and books related to Irish Philately since 1983.
- Hibernian: Handbook and Catalog of the Postage Stamps of Ireland, by Roy Hamilton-Bowen and Lee R. Wolverton. 327 pages (Fig. 5). This Handbook was published in 2019 by Rodgau Philatelie. Contact Roy at roy.hb@online.de. The handbook is also available from The ÉPA members auctions. For information on the next auction, contact auction manager Michael O' Reilly at AuctionManagerEPA@gmail.com. This handbook is an extensive review of post 1922 Irish Philatelic material and probably will not be updated or duplicated. There are three extensive pages on Political Labels (pages 224 to 226).
- Ireland's Transition, by Dr. C.I. Dulin and published in 1992 by MacDonnell Whyte Ltd. 394 pages (Fig. 6). I understand that the book is still available from David MacDonnell at mdwltd@eircom.net. The book deals with Irish Postal History of the Transitional Period 1922 to 1925 and discusses several labels and political stamps issued during the early 1920s.

Annual General Meetings of the Éire Philatelic Association

John B. Sharkey

The Founding of the ÉPA

On September 15, 1950, our Association was founded by a small group of enthusiastic collectors of Irish stamps. The suggestion to form a club came in 1948, from Frank R. A. McCormick, who wrote a weekly column on Irish stamps in Linn's Stamp News. His suggestion was followed up by Neil Stack and Bill Hickey. This just did not happen but was the result of two years of planning and was described in the October 1969 issue of The Revealer by Neil Stack and there is no doubt they planned thoroughly and well. To assist in the Association development, they were encouraged by the Hon. Erskine Childers, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs of Ireland, and also by the Hon. Donal Scully, Foreign Trade Attaché of the Consulate of Ireland, New York City. A constitution and bylaws were written and they set forth the name of the organization as the Éire Philatelic Association, International. During the first year, Bill Hickey (ÉPA #1) was President and Secretary, and Neil Stack (ÉPA #2) held the offices of Vice-President and Treasurer, as well as publicity and public relations manager. Charter membership was closed with the admittance of member #176, Miss E. McHenry of Dublin, Ireland.

In January 1951, Neil Stack became the first editor of our official publication, The Revealer, a position which he held until 1958, when John J. Walsh took over the position. To date, there have been twelve editors of The Revealer, the longest serving being Patrick J. Ryan Sr., who served from 1986 to 2007. Many consider The Revealer to be the bible of Irish philately.

My purpose in writing this article for the 75th Anniversary of the ÉPA is to trace the history of ÉPA meetings from the early years (now called the Annual General Meeting or AGM) and show the souvenirs that were produced for these meetings. As it turns out, this was a larger project that I expected and required the reading of every single issue of The Revealer.

Early meetings of the ÉPA.

Besides the organizational meetings of the ÉPA, the first general meeting of the new association may have been held at Capex, in Toronto Canada, September 21-29, 1951. The East Toronto Stamp Club offered the ÉPA the use of their lounge as a place to meet fellow members. Thomas E. Field (member #88) had a five-frame exhibit from his collection on exhibit.

The ÉPA's first Exhibition and Feish was held at SOJEX 1953, with the Association of South Jersey Stamp Clubs. Chairman of the Exhibition was Malcolm G. O'Reilly, a Charter Member of the ÉPA. At the show were various groups of ÉPA members, from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania. These branches would eventually coalesce into chapters of the ÉPA.

In September 1962, the ÉPA met at BALPEX "62", in Baltimore, with Joseph E. Foley as co-chairman of the show. The ÉPA was convened by William P. Hickey, on Saturday afternoon to discuss the quality of articles in The Revealer, and a possible merger with the Irish Philatelic Study Group, formed in London in 1956. The Group would eventually become the Irish Philatelic Circle, IPC, still a very active group today. Mr. Hickey showed a portion of his collection of Irish revenue stamps. I would consider this the first formal Annual General Meeting of the ÉPA. A formal report of the meeting was published in The Revealer Vol. 13, #3, 1963.

Our growth was greatly assisted by the series of regional meetings that were held from coast to coast. The Eastern Regional Meeting, under the chairmanship of Vice-President Joseph E. Foley, was held in conjunction with INTERPEX in New York City on March 18, 1967. The Western Regional Meeting, under the chairmanship of Secretary Gil Roberts, was held in conjunction with WESTPEX on May 14, 1967. Also in 1967, the ÉPA became a unit member of the American Philatelic Society, as Unit 21.

Through the '60s and '70s, the ÉPA continued to have annual meetings in conjunction with various philatelic societies, such as the Royal Philatelic Society of Canada (Sept. 1968) and philatelic shows (SESCAL and BALPEX, 1970, NOJEX, COMPEX, 1972, and CALPEX '73 to name just a few). Meetings were also held at international stamp shows (Philympia, 1970, Stampa, 1972, INTERPEX, 1973). Of note was "Stampa '72", held in Dublin; this exhibition was Ireland's first National Stamp Exhibition for over 50 years, and it was estimated that over 8,000 people visited Ireland House, St. Stephen's Green during the four days of the show.

Commemorative items prepared for meetings of the Éire Philatelic Association

ÉPA Label. In September 1951, envelope labels, shown here, were made available to members for use on correspondence. The frame and shamrock of the label were printed in green, while the lettering was in orange, with a white background. They were used to popularize the association.

Fig. 1: ÉPA label.

Fig. 2: ÉPA Logo

ÉPA Logo. In July 1951 the association seal was produced. It was a replica of the 2 ½d Coats of Arms of the Four Provinces of Ireland – Leinster, Connacht, Ulster and Munster. The general design was selected by Vice-President Neil Stack as being representative of the Republic of Ireland.

Philympia (London) Card. Member William Mathews created the unique souvenir of Philympia and the joint IPC-ÉPA meeting illustrated here. The pre-paid postcard was inscribed "CARTE POSTALE AVEC REPONNEE PAYEE" and franked with the 6d airmail that received the special Philympia airmail cancellation for Sept. 19, 1970, the day of the IPC-ÉPA meetings, the first joint meeting of the two societies. The reply card also bore the ÉPA member label tied by an attractive cachet made by Mr. Mathews.

50th Anniversary of Irish Postage Stamps. To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the first postage stamps of Ireland, in 1972 the ÉPA produced the cover illustrated here. Stamped-to-order postal stationery was chosen to provide a distinctive item for the event. The green and black cachet was designed by William T. McCaw, vice-president of the ÉPA, and printed by Dollard Printing House, Ltd, the same firm that produced the first overprinted stamps of Ireland in 1922. According to long-time member Michael Giffney (#105), the combination of 4 and 2 ½ p stamps had not been used before.

ÉPA Silver Jubilee

WESTPEX '75. The ÉPA was granted the honor of hosting the 1975 Westpex Stamp Show in California, a 'first' for the association, and what a show it was, in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the ÉPA. Over one hundred frames of Irish material from members in the U.S., Canada, Great Britain and Ireland were on exhibit. Neil Stack reported in The Revealer (Vol.24, #4, April 1975) that "Today, Irish Philately is enjoying a new golden age, brought about in no small measure by the work of our association and its members. The Revealer has developed into one of the finest and best produced journals in philately."

It was proposed by Jim Brady, editor of The Revealer, that a memento be provided to each ÉPA member for the occasion of our 25th anniversary, our Silver Jubilee. A cachet was designed by our ÉPA Art Director, John J. McManus, the design based on the front cover of the January 1974 Revealer. The cachet is shown below, and was sent to each member with a copy of The Revealer. In addition to the cachet, a souvenir card was prepared. The 25th anniversary card, shown in Figure 6, showed images of the 1950 set of stamps in honor of the Holy Year. Members added various show cancelations to these cards. Also noteworthy is the fact that our membership reached the 500-mark during this time.

Fig. 6: Souvenir card commemorating the 25th anniversary of the Éire Philatelic Association.

Fig. 7: Southern CA Chapter of the ÉPA celebrates the 60th anniversary of Ireland's first definitive stamp

INTERPHIL '76. The ÉPA met at INTERPHIL '76, the international philatelic exhibition in Philadelphia, in celebration of our nation's bicentennial. The ÉPA called it our "1976 National Meeting." Your author visited this wonderful meeting, but was not aware that a group of Irish philatelists was also meeting there. Members from the U.S. and overseas attended and met at a special meeting and luncheon.

The ÉPA produced souvenir cards, cachets or labels to celebrate various events or anniversaries:

SOCAL 1982. 60th anniversary of Ireland's first definitive stamp. Card produced by the ÉPA southern California chapter. A small label was also produced.

WESTPEX '85, RIPEX XX. 35th anniversary of the ÉPA, 1985. Cachet and label were produced for Westpex '85. Cachet produced and cancelled at the Rhode Island Philatelic Society Centennial.

CAPEX '87. ÉPA participation. A small card was prepared with the ÉPA and CAPEX '87 logos.

World Stamp Expo '89. Centenary of the birth of John Millington Synge, 1989, INTERPEX '92. The Commodore Barry Chapter produced a small souvenir card with a U.S. and an Irish stamp of John Barry, cancelled with INTERPEX '82 cancel at the ASDA Station in N.Y.

BALPEX '96. Illustration of the first definitive stamp on a post card. Some of these are shown in Figures 7 through 10.

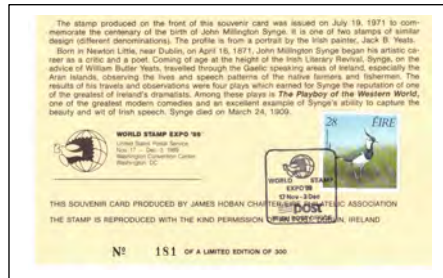

Fig. 9: Souvenir card produced by the James Hoban Chapter of the ÉPA at World Stamp Expo '89.

Fig. 10: A very nice souvenir card was produced by the John Barry Chapter of the ÉPA for Interpex

AMERIPEX '86 was held in Chicago in May/June 1986. The Irish exhibits constituted what was probably the largest display of Irish material ever shown in an international philatelic exhibition. Pat Walker received a Gold for her eight frames of "Ireland Postal History 1661 to 1899". Cyril I. Dulin received a Vermeil for an excellent showing of the overprints, with color photographs of portions of the stamps noting varieties. Souvenirs included a small souvenir card with the ÉPA and Ameripex logos and representation of a stamp booklet prepared by the James Hoban Chapter of Washington, D.C.

Fig. 12: SoCal Chapter celebrates the 500th Anniversary Landing of Columbus.

Fig. 13: Pacific 97 souvenir card issued at the World Philatelic Exhibition, compliments of the Ireland Post office.

By the early 1990s, the association was having an Annual General Meeting. The 1990 annual meeting was held at the Collectors Club in New York. Peter Bugg presided over the Business Meeting and Joseph Foley hosted the Annual General Meeting. This format has continued to the present day, with the addition of virtual meetings when in-person meetings were not held.

For many of these meetings, a commemorative item was prepared for distribution to our membership. Special commemorations were prepared for our major anniversaries. These commemorative items are briefly discussed in the following section.

SESCAL '90. A souvenir card was prepared by the SoCal Chapter honoring the ÉPA 40th Anniversary and the 150th Anniversary of the postage stamp, the Great Britain penny black.

World Columbian Stamp Expo '92. The ÉPA had its AGM at this meeting and the SoCal Chapter prepared a small souvenir card celebrating the 500th Anniversary of the landing of Columbus.

Pacific '97. The World Philatelic Exhibition took place in San Francisco in May/June 1997. A souvenir card was issued compliments of the Ireland Post Office. The ÉPA logo and seal, as well as John Barry Chapter were indicated on the card. The author fondly remembers the fine picnics held at Dave and Mary Brennan's house in New Jersey. Hand-made small souvenir cards were also prepared, franked with a U.S. Pacific 97 stamp and a 32p stamp from Ireland.

ÉPA Golden Anniversary

Philatelic Show 2000 and Stampa 2000. The 50th anniversary of the ÉPA was celebrated in conjunction with Philatelic Show 2000 (organized by the Northeast Federation of Stamp Clubs) in Boxborough MA and at Stampa 2000 in Dublin. At the AGM, the Thomas E. Field memorial Award was presented to Patrick J. Ryan, Sr. in recognition of his fourteen years of service to Irish philately as Editor of The Revealer. The John J. Clark award for outstanding service to the ÉPA was awarded to Michael P. Giffney for his service as an officer and for bringing countless collectors to the Association. Finally, the Vincent A. Linnell Memorial Award was presented to Hans Moxter for his article "Mulreadys Used In Ireland". A special cachet was prepared showing a harp in green, the years 1950 – 2000, and Éire Philatelic Association, 50th Anniversary. The envelope was franked with the 33 cent Irish Immigration stamp and cancelled with the Philatelic Show 2000 Station cancel. All of these items are illustrated here.

Each ÉPA member received a complementary souvenir sheet, illustrated in Figure 15, issued to celebrate the ÉPA's Golden Anniversary. It shows the Sinn Féin propaganda label, the 1st definitive stamp, a Dollard engraved essay and an ÉPA label. The sheet was designed by Joe Foley and printed in master sheets of six by Wilcox Printing and Publishing Inc., Madrid Iowa.

The souvenir sheet was overprinted for Stampa 2000, reading “EUROPEAN CELEBRATION IN DUBLIN” and “STAMPA – 10-12 NOVEMBER 2000, as shown on the envelope in Figure 16. In addition, An Post issued a Postal Card a piece of Irish Postal Stationary – to celebrate the 50th Anniversary.

Special commemorative items were prepared by the ÉPA for the following shows:

MILCOPEX 2001. Cachet showing the ÉPA logo in green, MILCOPEX 2001 in orange, cancelled Milcopex Station, September 14, 2001, Milwaukee WI.

SESCAL EXPO 2005. A particularly nice souvenir card was prepared for the AGM held in October 2005 in Los Angeles. The image commemorates American Advances in Aviation. The cancelled 37-cent stamp is the YB-49 Flying Wing from the USPS 1997 aviation set.

CHICAGOPEX '15. A cachet was prepared by the show committee “Honoring the Philately of Australasia, India and Ireland”. The cachet showed a representation of Ireland’s 5s St. Patrick stamp from the early definitive series. The 129th Anniversary Exhibition was held in Itasca, IL, November 2015.

PHILATELIC SHOW 2019. The 2019 ÉPA AGM was held in conjunction with was held in Boxborough MA, in May 2019. The theme of the show was the commemoration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the First Lunar Landing. A card was prepared with the ÉPA logo stamp, the 10-cent and 29-cent first man on the Moon stamps, the Philatelic Show cancel dated May 4, 2019. The card was signed by Chris Calle, who designed the 29-cent stamp. His father, Paul Calle, designed the 10-cent stamp.

ÉPA Seventy-Fifth Anniversary – Diamond Jubilee

St. Louis Stamp Expo – 2025 and Stampa 2025. The seventy-fifth anniversary of the ÉPA will be celebrated in conjunction with the St. Louis Stamp Expo 2025, March 21-23, 2025 and at Stampa 2025 in Dublin, Ireland on October 10-12, 2025. A souvenir card was prepared that is similar to our 50th anniversary card. The three Irish stamps on the card are the 2d first definitive stamp, issued in 1922; the one-shilling airmail stamp from the airmail set, issued in 1949; and the W stamp, Ireland-U.S. Relations, issued in 2024. Each member of the ÉPA will receive one of these souvenir cards. These cards will no doubt receive special show cancellations at these two philatelic events.

Two more commemorative items are being prepared for this anniversary. Shown in Figure 20 is a small souvenir sheet similar to the sheet that was prepared for our 50th anniversary. Finally, shown in Figure 21, is one side of a postal card that is being prepared by An Post, to be issued in 2025.

Fig. 20: Mini souvenir sheet issued by the ÉPA for its anniversary

Fig. 21: An Post postal card issued for the ÉPA anniversary

In conclusion, as we kick off our Diamond Jubilee celebration, we can all be proud of the contributions made by so many to the field of Irish philately. We still have a strong membership of over 260 in the United States and Europe. This is the first article that will appear in The Revealer in 2025, reporting on the history of our annual general meetings and our commemorative souvenir cards and other items. Other articles in the upcoming issues will relate other contributions made to Irish philately and, no doubt, some very interesting stories about historical events and philatelic shows, as well as the dedicated individuals who have worked so hard to make the ÉPA such an outstanding association.

County Cork Ship Letter Handstamps in the 18th and 19th Centuries (Part 1)

By Brian Callan

Prior to the 17th century, letters carried to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland were by private arrangement with a ship's master, a passenger on board the ship or using a personal courier. A scale of rates for delivery of letters was established by 1637 and all non-government controlled posts, both inland and foreign, were prohibited by law. All foreign letters were considered to be ship letters and the passing of the 1660 Act of Parliament required all mail carried on board ships to be subject to postage on arrival in the United Kingdom. Ship masters were required to hand over all letters to the Post Office official at their point of entry into the United Kingdom. From this point until 1840, the main element of the cost of receiving a ship letter was the inland charge based on the mileage between the entry port and the receiving address. However, there was only minimal adherence to the requirement to hand over letters at first point of entry, which changed significantly when the 1711 Act of Parliament determined that the ship master receive a gratuity of 1d per letter (regardless of size or number of pages) and the Act also introduced penalties for noncompliance with the hand over requirement.

The letter was then sent to the central post office in London or Dublin and the cost of delivery was calculated based on:

1. The ship letter charge
2. The inland postage based on mileage from port of entry to delivery address.

This delivery fee would then be paid by the addressee, who could also simply refuse to accept the letter if he/she deemed it too expensive.

Early ship letters usually bore the handwritten name of the ship or the ship's master but in the 1760's the Post Office began to issue individual ship letter hand stamps to postmasters at all entry ports. This was in order to identify the letter as ship mail and clarify the point of entry, both of which enabled the accurate calculation of postal rates due.

Irish Ship Letter Rates
British Act 1711	1d plus inland rates
British Act 1765	1d plus inland rates
Irish Act 1784	1d plus inland rates
Irish Act 1815	Single 6d plus inland rates Double 12d plus inland rates
British Act 1835	8d plus inland rates India Letters 4d plus inland rates
British Uniform Postage Act 1840	8d with no inland rate

Ship letters by private ship could be handed in at the ship's offices or handed directly to the ship's master. The 1711 Act of Parliament made it illegal to send letters by private ships which could be sent by regular Packet ship but private carriage of letters was permissible to places where no Post Office Packet ships existed. However, enforcement of this Act was difficult and the unofficial private arrangement for the carriage of letters by ship owners or masters continued to be the main channel by which overseas letters left the country throughout the 18th century. An 1814 Ship Letter Act made it compulsory to hand over all outgoing ship mail to the Post Office to be charged but this Act faced a public outcry as it was considered to be a Post Office levy on letters for which the Post Office provided no service. This requirement was then dropped and replaced by the 1815 Act which made it compulsory for all ship masters to carry such mails as should be tendered them by the Post Office, who were in turn required to pay a set fee to the ship owners for this service. From this point onwards, ship letters began to be handed in at the Post Offices and the service was developed in conjunction with the Packet services. By 1840 the postage rates had become uniform and it was no longer required to perform mileage calculations. The most significant use of ship letter handstamps was on mail coming from overseas.

Ship Letter Rates

The sender of early ship letters was usually not aware of which entry port a ship would use on entering the United Kingdom, which often depended on such things as weather conditions, repair needs or the need for water or stores. The total cost of postage was often determined primarily by the port of entry as it was charged on mileage from the port of entry to the destination. The ship letter charges below were then added to the inland postage charges.

The 1660 Act of Parliament required the shipmasters to hand over mail to Post Office officials at port of entry into the United Kingdom but they received no fee or gratuity so the mail was subject to inland mileage based postage rates only.

The 1711 Act also required the shipmasters to hand over mail at point of entry (now subject to a fine if not complied with) but also established a charge of 1d per letter, to be paid to the ship master and added to the Post Office delivery charge. This gratuity was per letter, regardless of the number of sheets.

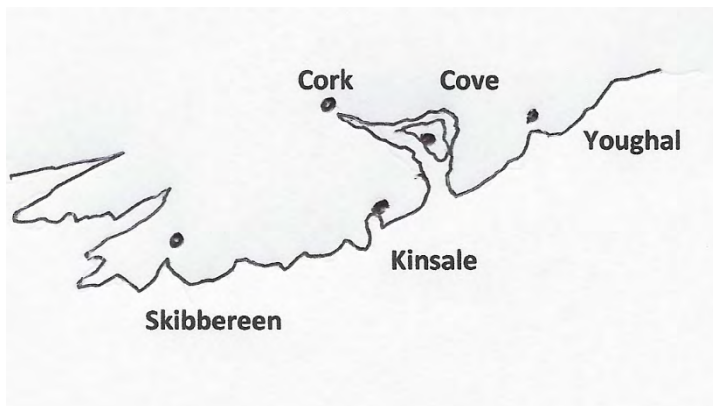

Postal rates are recorded in pence (one penny is 1d) and shillings (12 pence in a shilling). A shilling is denoted 1/-. A shilling and 1 penny is denoted 1/1, etc. The measurement of Irish and English miles was different until these were standardized in 1827. Prior to this, an Irish mile was equivalent to 1.27 English miles.

Entry Ports of County Cork

The major entry ports in the county of Cork were:

1. Cork City Port,
2. Cove (renamed Queenstown in 1849 and then Cobh in 1922),
3. Kinsale,
4. Skibbereen,
5. Youghal.

All these ports operated with ship letter handstamps for mail handed in by ship masters.

Cork City Port

The city of Cork is situated on the river Lee just before it flows into Cork Harbour. The city is 160 miles from Dublin (124 Irish miles in use up to 1827), approximately twelve miles from the Celtic Sea and the harbour has been described as one of the best natural harbours in the British Isles, large enough to have fitted the entire British navy at the time of World War I. The entry to the harbour is about a mile wide but it stretches to three miles wide within the harbour and approximately ten miles long. The harbour is dominated by Cove (renamed Queenstown, now Cobh) situated on Great Island, just within the entrance to the harbour. However, the shipping volume at Merchants Quay in Cork city centre was also considerable and a regular Packet operated between Cork and Bristol during the 18th and 19th centuries. The earliest Cork ship letter handstamps were introduced in the middle of the 18th century, sometimes simply with a SHIP handstamp and other times with a parallel Cork handstamp. The mail coach service between Dublin and Cork began in 1789, which also was a critical link in the postal system.

Entire letter from Barbados to Bristol, sent on 19 April 1750, carried per Capt. Thompson. The letter was landed in Ireland and shows usage of an early Irish SHIPP handstamp, with London bishop on reverse. The initial charge of 11d included 1d ship letter (paid as master gratuity), plus 4d inland single to Dublin and 6d combined rate to London. Letter was rerated to 1N3 (one shilling and 3d) to include 4d charge from London to Bristol (over 80 miles). The inland Irish charge of 4d indicates that the handstamp was probably in use at Cork. This hand stamp was not recorded by Robertson or Tabeart and Quail reports it to be one of three known usages. Ray-Smith previously reported the earliest known ship letter being sent in 1771.

Entire letter from Jamaica to London sent on 17 September 1771 and carried per H.M.S. Carrysfort M(an) of W(ar), captained by W. Hay. Letter has a 19 December London bishop on reverse. The cover shows a ship letter handstamp of SHIP and a separated unconnected handstamp for Cork city, CORK. Letter was rated 5d to include 1d ship letter charge and 4d charge to Dublin (over 40 Irish miles). This was rerated to 11d when the 6d combined rate from Dublin to London was added. This ship letter handstamp was in use from 1761 to 1776.

Entire letter from Barbados to Greenock, sent on 8 June 1789, by private ship and landed at Cork. Cover shows a black unframed CORK/ SHIP LETTER with a manuscript via Donaghadee, initially rated 9d double rate (Ship letter rate 1d + Cork to Dublin 4d x 2, total 9d). The letter was then uprated to 1/5 in Dublin (Dublin to Donaghadee 4d x 2, total 8d + 9d = 1/5). The final rate was 2/7 (Packet 2d x 2 = 4d + Portpatrick to Greenock 5d x 2 = 10d, total 14d + 1/5 = 2/7 for double sheet letter). The letter was also backstamped with a small black IRELAND (applied in Dublin). This ship letter hand stamp was used from 1782 to 1856 (a version in red ink was also used from 1828 to 1831 and a version in blue below used 1846 to 1847).

Entire letter from Cape of Good Hope to London sent on 26 April 1839. The letter is stamped with a crowned oval GENERAL POST OFFICE CAPE HOPE AP 27 1839 and a framed INDIA LETTER/ CORK. After landing at Cork, letter was sent to London on the Waterford to Milford Haven Packet. Letter has a weight notation of 1¼ oz. at top left of cover and is rated 6/9½ (4d India rate plus quintuple 375 miles internal charge of 13d x 5 = 65d, plus quintuple Waterford Packet charge of 10d and quintuple Welsh additional ½d road toll charge of 2½d, total 81½d or 6/9½). Quail reports this as the only recorded use of this particular handstamp, introduced in 1839 (letter also illustrated by Robertson) but Hinneburg-Murphy reports a total of three India Letter Cork handstamps, differing in size of frame and lettering.

The new 4d India rate which applied to letters from Cape of Good Hope was introduced by the 1836 Act of Parliament and the additional ½d Welsh charge per increment was to pay for road improvements required for the Milford Haven -Waterford Packet. The India handstamps only had Irish usage at Cork, Cove and Dublin.

Entire letter from Columbia to London, sent on 27 January 1840 and back stamped in Cork on 21 February 1840 (FE 21 1840) and on arrival in London on 24 February 1840 (24 FE 1840). Letter has a black framed two-line CORK/ SHIP LETTER and a manuscript 8d ship letter rate. Letter also has a red oval New York Forwarding Agent's cachet, dated 3 February 1840. This ship letter handstamp was used from 1837 to 1843.

A forwarding agent would have been retained to ensure the safe transfer of the letter from ship to postal system or indeed to engage the best ship if letter was being sent initially. Forwarding agents became popular about 1815, at the end of the Napoleonic wars, when trade started to expand significantly.

Some Cork based forwarding agents are used on several of the letters from Cork and Cove.

Entire letter from St John's, New Brunswick to Devon, sent on 28 September 1846 and back stamped with Cork CDS on 27 October 1846 (OC 27 1846) and in London on 30 October 1846 (OC 30 1846). Letter has a blue unframed two line CORK/ SHIP LETTER and a black manuscript 8d ship letter rate. This blue ship Letter handstamp was used in 1846, making it the earliest recorded use to date (previously reported from 1847).

Cove

Cove was renamed Queenstown after Queen Victoria's visit in 1849 and renamed Cobh in 1922 after the Irish Provisional Government was established. Cove is situated on the south side of Great Island, at the entrance to Cork Harbour. It is eight miles from Cork City and during the American and French wars, Cove acted as a major British naval base. The deep water anchorage allowed shelter to large parts of the British navy and the harbour entrance was protected by forts on both sides of the harbour entrance. It was only in 1937 that the Royal Navy handed over control of its naval base at Haulbowline to Ireland.

Entire letter from Portsmouth, Virginia to Dublin, sent on 1 April 1800 and back stamped in Dublin on 27 May 1800. This cover has abbreviation LE for letter, with this type of abbreviation only used at Cove and at Dingle (Co. Kerry) and not known elsewhere in the United Kingdom. The letter has black two line ship letter marking COVE/ SHIP LE. Letter also has circular Dublin arrival date stamp MY/27/1800 on reverse. Finally, this letter is rated 7d, of which 1d was ship letter rate and 6d was the charge between Cork and Dublin (greater than 80 Irish miles). Ship Letter handstamp is the first used at Cove, in use from 1788 to 1812.

Making History, Making History Ireland

Tommy Graham, editor, History Ireland

It all started with Brian Friel's play, Making History, a fictionalised account of Hugh O'Neill, Earl of Tyrone, which prompted a young historian, Hiram Morgan, to pen a critique. Hiram's critique was, however, tinged with admiration and envy—admiration for Friel's ability to communicate imaginatively with a wider audience, and envy that academic historians were not able to do the same. He went on to call for academic historians to become better communicators, to satisfy the wider public's thirst for knowledge about the past, and in particular he suggested the setting up of a popular history magazine. As a result, in conjunction with others of like mind, History Ireland magazine was born, with Hiram and myself as joint editors.

The first issue was on the newsstands in the spring of 1993. Our editorial stated that our mission was 'to bring Irish history out of the ivory tower and to make the latest research accessible to the widest possible audience'. It further noted that 'the professional study of history has been a significant contributory factor in the modernisation of contemporary Ireland'. It is important to remember that today, when history is being downgraded in schools and—in common with the humanities generally—in universities. We need to understand our past more than ever in this rapidly changing, and indeed threatening, world.

There was a change of management in 2002; Hiram moved on to greater things and Wordwell Books, headed by Nick Maxwell, took over. Not only was quality improved (e.g. full colour) but also quantity; originally a quarterly, since 2005 History Ireland has been published bimonthly.

History Ireland's commitment to public history now extends well beyond the magazine. Our most notable ancillary venture, starting in 2010, has been our 'Hedge Schools'—that term has its own historical resonances—in which I quiz a panel of historians and other experts before a live audience. These have been held all over Ireland, and even at the Electric Picnic rock festival (think Woodstock) and are available as podcasts on our website <https://historyireland.com/hedge-schools/>

We have always prided ourselves on the high quality of our presentation, due in no small part to our excellent designers—Joy Arden in the early years and, since 2014, Ger Garland, who, readers will be interested to know, is also a designer of stamps (see above/below). Over the years we have produced special issues with a particular focus, for example, on Ireland and Spain, Germany, Africa, the First World War, Brian Boru and the Battle of Clontarf, etc. In more recent years we have opted instead for stand-alone special supplements, particularly tracking the Decade of Centenaries (1912-1923)—1916: dream and death, 1916-18: changed utterly, 1919-21: a global history and 1921-23: the split. Our most recent special supplement marked the 225th anniversary of the death of Theobald Wolfe Tone, founder of separatist republicanism.

Counting the current one (March/April 2025), 168 issues have been produced so far. Sales average 5,000 per issue (with readership a multiple of that), with subscribers making up half of that number, with roughly half of our subscribers from outside Britain and Ireland (mainly in North America).
